

Instruction

Nondiscrimination in the Instructional Program

The CREC Council pledges to avoid discriminatory actions and seeks to foster good human and educational relations which will help to attain:

1. equal rights and opportunities for students and staff members in the school community.
2. equal opportunity for all students to participate in the total school program of the schools.
3. continual study and development of curricula toward improving human relations and understanding and appreciating cultural differences.
4. training opportunities for improving staff ability and responsiveness to educational and social needs.
5. opportunities in educational programs which are broadly available to all students.
6. an appropriate learning environment for students which includes (1) adequate instructional books, supplies, materials, equipment, staffing, facilities and technology, (2) equitable allocation of resources among CREC schools and (3) a safe school setting.

Each student, at the time s/he becomes eligible for participation, will be advised of his/her right to an equal opportunity to participate in school programs without discrimination of any kind.
