To aid in implementation of new NGSS units and pedagogical approaches to science instruction, CREC is offering unit launch sessions. These sessions occur after school hours and provide teachers with a hands-on approach to understanding the unit phenomenon, storyline, content, and instructional practices required for successful implementation.

All launch sessions will be held at CREC Central from 3:30 p.m. to 6:30p.m. For grades K-6, launch session are $75 per seat, per session. Each K-6 session focuses on a single unit. High School launch sessions are a full day ($115) and provide background on all curricular units.
