Join us for this four-day workshop and learn systematic, structured methods for teaching decoding, encoding, oral and written expression to students with learning disorders and specific language disabilities.

Participants will:

- Have the opportunity to apply new skills in practice simulations and receive implementation coaching by experts
- Receive the books "Speech to Print: Language Essentials for Teachers" by Louisa Moats Ph.D. and "Multisensory Teaching of Basic Language Skills" by Beverly J. Wolf M.Ed. and Judith Birsh Ed.D.

The series's curriculum is aligned with the International Dyslexia Association's Level 1 Dyslexia Specialist Standards.

Some feedback from past participants:

"I am thrilled with this course! I feel my competency as a reading interventionist has grown dramatically."

"I feel better prepared to instruct my struggling learners with real hands-on activities."

"I will be able to incorporate more multisensory activities in my instruction. I have a better understanding of Dyslexia and how to identify students."

"I'm leaving this workshop with a plethora of resources and strategies that are new and very applicable to the needs of my students."
