Through this training, you will learn best practices to work with students and gain unified job coaching methods. You will receive a training manual and the skills to help you blend school services with transition skills. Participants are encouraged to bring an electronic device if possible.

Topics include:

- The role of a job coach
- Employability skills checklist/task analysis
- Assessment
- Industry skills standard
- Social interaction skills/job-related behaviors
- Executive Functional skills
- Transition law
- Student self-advocacy and independence
- Safety standards and 'scaffolding' versus 'fading out'

For additional information, please contact Mary Janet Candeias at 860-524-4022 or mcandeias@crec.org.

Please bring ear buds and a laptop or other device for note taking and access to online resources.
